1. Educational Goals for the Course:

- To extend and support the knowledge of using the TRIBES human development process to implement cooperative learning within the classroom.

2. Instructional Learning Objectives – Educators will:

(What will participants learn and put into practice as a result of completing this process?)

- Continue to discover the impact of the TRIBES pattern of interaction over the traditional approach for working with students.
- Be asked to decide how this class will help them improve on the Framework evaluation and which specific components are addressed in this class.
- Concentrate on Framework Domain 2, The Classroom Environment, where they will focus on teacher and student interaction with respect and rapport.
- Concentrate on Framework Domain 3 where the focus will be how to engage students in learning.

3. Course Requirements – Educators will:

In Class:

- Attend and participate in all sessions.
- Develop an outline for a plan on how to implement TRIBES into his/her classroom, including a planned time of implementation.

Out of Class:

- Read assigned materials in TRIBES manual.
- Complete implementation plan.
- Submit all course work to instructor at cmccurley@vallivue.org
