

LIBRARY/RESEARCH SKILLS AND TECHNOLOGY CURRICULUM: KINDERGARTEN

#	STANDARDS/ GOALS/ OBJECTIVES
	National Information Literacy Standards for Student Learning #1: The student who is information literate accesses information efficiently and effectively; recognizes the need for information; recognizes that accurate and comprehensive information is the basis for intelligent decision-making; formulates questions based on information needs; identifies a variety of potential sources of information; and develops and uses successful strategies for locating information.
	I. ORIENTATION
	A. Purpose and Mission of the Library Media Center
	The student learns about the services and resources available at the library media center.
O1	locate the school library media center.
O2	identify library media center staff and recognize their role in student learning.
	B. Circulation Policies and Procedures
	The student learns about the circulation policies and procedures at each new level.
O3	demonstrate knowledge of acceptable behavior and responsibility in the library media center.
O4	use correct circulation procedures for checking out library materials.
O5	introduce the importance of student numbers/bar code labels.
O6	understand when books are due and the importance of returning them on time.
O7	recognize the consequences for lost books, damaged books, and overdue books.
	National Information Literacy Standards for Student Learning #1: The student who is information literate accesses information efficiently and effectively; recognizes the need for information; recognizes that accurate and comprehensive information is the basis for intelligent decision-making; formulates questions based on information needs; identifies a variety of potential sources of information; and develops and uses successful strategies for locating information. National Information Literacy Standards for Student Learning #2: The student who is information literate evaluates information critically and completely; determines accuracy, relevance, and comprehensiveness; distinguishes among fact, point of view, and opinion; identifies inaccurate and misleading information; and selects information appropriate to the problem or question at hand. National Information Literacy Standards for Student Learning #3: The student who is information literate uses information accurately and creatively; organizes information for practical application; integrates new information into one's own knowledge; applies information in critical thinking and problem-solving; and produces and communicates information and ideas in appropriate formats.
	II. ACCESSING AND USING INFORMATION
	A. Information Access: Identification, Location, and Retrieval
	The student accesses information efficiently and effectively.
A1	locate areas of the library media center and its collection (easy fiction, circulation, etc.).

#	STANDARDS/ GOALS/ OBJECTIVES
A2	demonstrate awareness of book arrangement.
A3	locate materials in the Easy section.
A4	recognize that there is a system for organizing library materials.
A5	identify alphabetical order of easy books.
A6	identify left to right, top to bottom shelf arrangement.
A7	demonstrate a working knowledge of library media center vocabulary (library media center, author, title, illustrator, fiction).
A8	distinguish the author from the illustrator.
A9	recognize that the different parts of a book offer information (cover, front, back, title, body, pages, illustrations, spine, title page, location of author and illustrator).
A10	be introduced to a variety of traditional and non-print media (video, filmstrip, overhead projector, computer, etc.).
	B. Information Analysis: Interpretation and Evaluation
	The student analyzes information critically and completely.
A11	use illustrations as clues in understanding material.
A12	select materials suited for needs.
A13	differentiate between real and fantasy.
A14	be introduced to plot.
A15	interpret stories through creative expression.
	C. Information Use: Communication and Presentation
	The student uses information effectively and creatively.
A16	share literature with other children.
A17	use comprehension skills to retell or summarize a story.
A18	gain information and understanding from viewing non-print media.
	National Information Literacy Standards for Student Learning #4: The student who is an independent learner is information literate and pursues information related to personal interests; seeks information related to various dimensions of personal well-being, such as career interests, community involvement, health matters, and recreational pursuits; and designs, develops, and evaluates information products and solutions related to personal interests. National Information Literacy Standards for Student Learning #5: The student who is an independent learner is information literate and appreciates literature and other creative expressions of information; is a competent and self-motivated reader; derives meaning from information presented creatively in a variety of formats; and develops creative products in a variety of formats. National Information Literacy Standards for Student Learning #6: The students who is an independent learner is information literature and strives for excellence in information seeking and knowledge generation; assesses the quality of the process and products of personal information seeking; and devises strategies for revising, improving, and updating self-generated knowledge.

#	STANDARDS/ GOALS/ OBJECTIVES
	III. Lifelong Learning
	A. Independent Learning
	The student develops skills that help the student satisfy personal and educational needs on one's own.
L1	browse the collection for individual interests.
	B. Literature Appreciation
	The student appreciates literature and other creative forms of expression.
L2	listen to stories from a variety of multicultural materials read aloud.
L3	demonstrate active listening.
L4	be introduced to various genres of literature (general fiction, poetry, fairy tales, folk tales, fables, and nursery rhymes).
	National Information Literacy Standards for Student Learning #7: The student who contributes positively to the learning community and to society is information literate and recognizes the importance of information to a democratic society; seeks information from diverse sources, contexts, disciplines, and cultures; and respects the principle of equitable access to information. National Information Literacy Standards for Student Learning #8: The student who contributes positively to the learning community and to society is information literate and practices ethical behavior in regard to information and information technology; respects the principles of intellectual freedom; respects intellectual and property rights; and uses information technology responsibly. National Information Literacy Standards for Student Learning #9: The student who contributes positively to the learning community and to society is information literate and participates effectively in groups to pursue and generate information; shares knowledge and information with others; respects others' ideas and backgrounds and acknowledges their contributions; collaborates with others, both in person and through technologies, to identify information problems and to seek their solutions; and collaborates with others, both in person and through technologies, to design, develop, and evaluate information products and solutions.
	C. Social Responsibility and Library Citizenship
	The student practices ethical usage of information and information technology, and values the rights of others.
L5	recognize that library materials are shared and must be returned in a timely manner.
L6	demonstrate respect for the rights and privileges of all library patrons.
L7	learn and demonstrate proper care of library materials.
L8	mark shelf appropriately when selecting books.
L9	exhibit appropriate, self-controlled behavior in the library media center.
L10	demonstrate care and appropriate use of available electronic hardware and software, as outlined in the Vallivue School District Acceptable Use Policy.